Checklist for Chaperones

- _____ Do you fully understand that you are responsible for the behavior of the students assigned to you, as a group and as individuals?
- _____ Do all of your students have appropriate footwear and jackets for Lehman Caves?
- _____ Do you and your group have snacks and lunch?
- _____ Have you reviewed the park rules and regulations? Do the students in your group understand the regulations?

Please read the following carefully:

Adults who accompany educational groups to Great Basin National Park are setting an example for the students. We ask that you honor all regulations while in the park. The park depends on you to provide whatever discipline is necessary to ensure the protection of park resources and the safety of your group.
